

Company Succession and Trusts

Reith Neumahr Attorneys

Comment:

This commercial law and notary firm frequently advises on company and wealth succession issues on the interfaces with corporate law, M&A and change of corporate form. The firm boasts German and international companies among its client list, as well as a European retailer as a core client. Reith Neumahr also advises on inheritance and gift law in addition to private and commercial real estate law – often including international tax issues. An associate was named salary partner so as to put management on a broader footing. (2 equity partners, 1 salary partner, 6 associates)

Clients:

Ongoing advice to: owner family of a European retail concern on succession issues; German company on legal and tax structuring of company and wealth succession; owner family on long-standing wealth succession planning; heiress based in the US on international inheritance assessment; high-net-worth family from eastern Europe on succession planning; joint heirs on enforcement of claims against legacy hunter.